SUP. DIMITRIJEVIC NAMED "BEST SUPERVISOR" BY SHEPHERD EXPRESS

Votes for Best Supervisor cast by readers throughout Milwaukee County

Milwaukee, WI – For the second year in a row, Milwaukee County Supervisor Marina Dimitrijevic has been named the Best Supervisor by the Shepherd Express weekly newspaper.

"Once again, I'd like to thank the readers of the Shepherd Express for all of their support," said Supervisor Dimitrijevic, who represents Milwaukee's near South Side and Bay View neighborhoods. "I work hard to serve my district and improve our quality of life in Milwaukee County. I also want to commend Supervisor Chris Larson and Alderman Tony Zielinski for helping us complete a Bay View sweep of the local government awards this year!"

The Shepherd Express wrote, "Marina Dimitrijevic's energy matches the neighborhoods she represents -- Bay View and the near south side -- and so do the causes close to her heart: the environment, social justice, the elderly, LGBT residents and immigrants. She's helped the county to "go green" in a serious way to benefit the environment and government's bottom line. She's currently helping to lead a coalition to save the Hoan Bridge, the South Shore's lifeline to Downtown. Not yet 30, Dimitrijevic already is a seasoned pol and has a bright future ahead of her."

"I'm humbled by this vote of confidence from the readers of the Shepherd Express. It's rewarding to serve in this capacity," said Supervisor Dimitrijevic, who credits her common sense efforts to promote sustainability for spreading her popularity beyond the boundaries of the 4th Supervisory District. "After all, we do not inherit the earth from our ancestors; we borrow it from our children."
